SIKKIM

Sikkim is located in the north-eastern part of the country. It is one of the smallest states in India. Sikkim is bordered by the Tibet Autonomous Region of China to the north and northeast, by Bhutan to the southeast, by the Indian state of West Bengal to the south, and by Nepal to the west. Its capital is Gangtok. The state is famous for dazzling waterfalls, Tibetan style Buddhist Gompas, alpine meadows, rhododendron flowers and more.

Kanchenjunge is 3rd highest peak in the world, and lies in Sikkim.

PEOPLE OF SIKKIM

Sikkim Bhutia community wears a traditional attire known as kha - a cloak-like garment. Women belt this outfit over a silk blouse which is full-sleeved known as hemju.

The men wear it with a pair of trousers, generally fasten with a leather belt, and a jacket called kushem. The inherited clothing of the Lepcha women is dumdyorn or dumumum.
